SHARY BOYLE

Shary Boyle is an artist from Toronto currently living as an artist in residence with the Klondike Institute for Art and Culture in Dawson City, Yukon. She graduated from the Ontario College of Art in 1994 and has been travelling and making art in Canada and Europe ever since. Shary's practice revolves around drawing and painting, as well as performance, sculpture and super8 film. Her work has been exhibited and screened internationally. Recent shows include a solo exhibition at the vonRot Gallery in Berlin in September 2001, a solo exhibition at Toronto's YYY Artist Outlet in January 2002, and a live drawing performance in Los Angeles for the Sonic Youth curated "all tomorrows parties" festival in March 2002. Her work is involved with inventing representations of women, animals and fantasy which subvert established orders of power.
